The sun had set, Its warm gold-en light still col-oured the night When first we met, that ev-'ning in San - ta Cruz. An old sweet song Was borne on the air and seemed to de-clare That life is long and lo-vers have naught to lose. Then in the dance we found ro-mance Nothing we thought could sev-er.

On-ly to find fate was un-kind, We had to part for ev-er. I still re - call That you were the theme of my sum-mer dream When love was all, that ev-'ning in San - ta Cruz. I ev-'ning in San - ta Cruz.

Words and Music by

FRED HARTLEY

Smoothly (not slowly)

Life is no-thing with-out mu-sic,

Mu-sic helps the world a-long; While the orch-es-tra is play-ing My heart is sing-ing a song of love, dear. Let's for-get a-bout those grey days

Lat-er on when trou-bles are end-ed, Lat-er on there'll come a day. When we'll meet, you and I, In some sweet "by and by", Lov-ing the old fash-ioned way. Smile a-while and

Lat-er or when heart-aches are mend-ed, We'll be one, and nev-er
